UNION UPDATE

Become An Elected Leader of Local 1000

As a member-led union, Local 1000 relies on its elected officers and representatives to choose the direction we take in our fight for better wages and working conditions. Our leaders are at the forefront of organizing our efforts to give our members—and all Californians—the opportunity to have a good life, live in sustainable communities and enjoy the fruits of social, economic and environmental justice.

We work together to engage our 96,000 members to enforce our hard-earned contract rights and empower working families.

As a statewide officer, an officer in your District Labor Council or as a bargaining unit representative, you have a voice in the activities that matter most to you, your fellow workers and your families.

The nomination period begins Jan 2. Nomination forms are due Feb. 12. Voting begins April 20 and concludes on May 21. Results are announced May 30.
