

Bargaining Units

Local 1000 is the largest representative of state employees.

We represent employees in nine bargaining units; each unit represents a category of job classifications.

UNIT 1: INFORMATIONAL, FINANCIAL AND RESOURCE PROFESSIONALS

Includes accounting officers, auditors and analysts for all departments; employment program representatives at the Employment Development Department; disability evaluators at the Disability Determination Services Division and information technology analysts.

Approximately 46,000 employees represented

UNIT 3: PROFESSIONAL EDUCATORS AND LIBRARIANS

Includes teachers and librarians at the departments of Corrections and Rehabilitation (Division of Juvenile Justice), Mental Health and Developmental Services as well as teachers in the State Special Schools for the deaf and the blind.

Approximately 1,500 employees represented

UNIT 4: OFFICE AND ALLIED WORKERS

Includes program assistants, program/tax technicians, key data operators, word processing technicians and stock clerks. This unit also represents toll collectors at eight bridges up and down the state.

Approximately 29,000 employees represented

UNIT 11: ENGINEERING AND SCIENTIFIC TECHNICIANS

Includes agricultural inspectors, air resources technicians, and those who perform rafting and technical work in such departments as Caltrans and Water Resources.

Approximately 3,000 employees represented

UNIT 14: PRINTERS

Includes employees at the Office of State Publishing where the state budget, bills and laws, and other state documents are printed; printers and graphic artists in individual departments.

Approximately 500 employees represented

UNIT 15: ALLIED SERVICE WORKERS

Includes civil service custodians who clean various state buildings, laundry workers, supervising cooks and food services workers in prisons and other state institutions.

Approximately 4,600 employees represented

UNIT 17: REGISTERED NURSES

Includes registered nurses in state hospitals and prisons, departments of Health Care Services and Public Health, nurse evaluators who inspect facilities, and nurse consultants who oversee special programs.

Approximately 5,100 employees represented

UNIT 20: MEDICAL AND SOCIAL SERVICES SPECIALISTS

Includes licensed vocational nurses, certified nurse assistants, teaching assistants, registered dental assistants, pharmacy and laboratory technicians, physical therapists and counselors. They work in prisons, veterans' homes, developmental centers and special schools.

Approximately 3,700 employees represented

UNIT 21: EDUCATIONAL CONSULTANTS AND LIBRARIANS

Includes the librarians at the State Library and educational consultants at the Department of Education who work with school districts and in educational programs.

Approximately 600 employees represented