FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), the EEOC maintains public reading areas at its headquarters library and in each of its district offices that are available to the public by appointment. The public reading areas contain the information listed below. The same information is available at the EEOC's field, area, and local offices, but these offices not required to have designated reading areas for the public unless space permits.

The EEOC's district, field, area, and local offices maintain the following materials for public inspection:

- Blank EEOC forms relating to the Commission's procedures as they affect the public.
- EEOC's annual reports to Congress.
- EEOC's Compliance Manual and Index.
- Federal Register notices published by EEOC.
- EEOC Directives, including Internal Orders, Supplements, and Notices.
- An equal employment decisions loose leaf service and bound volumes.

Requests for the following types of records must be submitted to the regional attorney at the district office address:

- Information about current or former employees of a field office.
- Existing non-confidential, statistical data related to the case processing of a field office.
- Agreements between the EEOC and state or local Fair Employment Agencies operating within the jurisdiction of a field office.
- Materials in the field office investigative files related to charges under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Equal Pay Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; or the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Requests for any other records, or for records whose location is unknown to the requestor, must be submitted in writing to the Legal Counsel:
