1.2.1 Designation of Confidential Positions (Unit 1)

- A. "Confidential employee" is defined as any employee who is required to develop or present management positions with respect to employer-employee relations or whose duties normally require access to confidential information contributing significantly to the development of management positions [Government Code section 3513(f)].
- B. Performance of the following work tasks does not in and of itself justify/qualify for confidential status:
  - 1. Processing grievances;
  - 2. Processing Workers' Compensation claims, appointment papers, Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) applications and policies; examination design and execution, training of employees; handling post and bid programs.
- C. The State may designate up to six hundred and twenty-five (625) positions as confidential. All incumbents in confidential positions shall remain in those positions. This limit shall include positions already designated by the Public Employment Relations Board (PERB). Each appointing power may have at least one position designated as confidential.
- D. If the State proposes to designate positions as confidential, the State shall provide notice to the Union and shall meet and confer with the Union upon request.
- E. The State agrees that no Union officer, bargaining unit council member, or job steward shall be involuntarily transferred, assigned or designated into a confidential position.
- F. The State agrees to provide the Union with a list of incumbents in confidential positions by department; including names, classifications and position numbers; upon request but in no event more than every six (6) months following the ratification of the Contract.
- G. Any grievance regarding this Contract section shall be filed by the Union at CalHR. If the parties are unable to agree, the confidential designation dispute shall be submitted to PERB for resolution.
